- Community Conference 7/9/2016 - 7:30-2:30pm at the Renaissance Center Great opportunity to meet other groups, exhibitions, ideas, give away, etc. It is about a full day activity. The Mayor and Commissioners, etc. will be guests. Registration on line prices run from $10.00 to $15.00.

- Old business- no truck issues on Quail Hollow for the last two months.
- Sentinel- will leave newspapers only on those residents' homes that pick up and reflect the interest in the paper.
- Bulk trash- trash issues on Parrot Dr. vacant house. The same was creating debris and trash overflow. Awareness; Bulk trash will call residents to let them know when is the collection day will be.
- No August meeting Rick Singh will be aqt our September meeting.

Treasurer's report

- Treasurer Miriam reported that the South Goldenrod Safe neighborhood fund balance was $402.56, plus the $35.00 from raffle, the new balance is of $437.56.
- Motion was presented to reimburse a total of $71.89 to Mr. Oscar Soto, for the purchase of 30 bags of mulch for landscaping for the Bacchus Gardens subdivision entrance. Discussion generated ideas as to how any future situations should be handled before proceeding. Jim suggested that any member should ask before engaging in any expense before proceeding since SGSN's funds are very limited. Jason agreed the residents should ask first. It was therefore decided that Mr. Soto will not be reimbursed.

Review minutes

- A motion to accept the May Minutes was made by Sally and second by Ernesto. The minutes were accepted by unanimous vote.
- 50/50 drawing total $30.00 won by Sally. She was awarded $15.00 and $15.00 went to the treasury.
