Keeping Things Clean

Thank you to everyone who joined our January 8 Lee Road Safe Neighborhood Community Clean Up. Join Lee Road Safe at our next Neighborhood Clean Up.

You're the Cure

The American Heart Association's You're the Cure Initiative seeks to promote healthy lifestyles, provide access to healthcare and health resources and create healthier communities. Cristina Pichardo-Cruz of Orange County's Traffic Engineering Division presented the initiative to Lee Road Safe at our December 13, 2022, meeting. Visit yourethecure.org for more information.

Holiday Toy Distribution

Lee Road Safe Neighborhoods distributed toys to two of the extended day hotels where families are living. Santa and his helper elves handed out over 350 toys. This is the second year LRSN has done this event. Thank you to all who contributed to this event.

Fairview Shores Branch Library Happenings

In 2023, the Orange County Library System celebrates 100 years of service to the community. All year long, they will be hosting special events and programs that illuminate the Library System's history. Visit ocls.info/100-year-celebration.

Your local library offers a wide range of classes and events including Arts & Crafting, Storytime, Games & Activities, Science & Math, Health & Wellness, Education & Learning and more.

For more information on classes and events, contact the Library at 407-835-7323 or on the web at www.ocls.info/classes-events and select Fairview Shores Branch.
